- A BLACK HISTORY MONTH Sidebar: while most think that we were cheated by being GIVEN the shortest month of the year to celebrate the contributions of blacks, the month of February was actually chosen back in 1926 by the famous Carter G. Woodson to celebrate the black diaspora period because it coincided with the birth dates of Abraham Lincoln and Fredrick Douglas, both of whom have been credited with the start of the civil rights of black slaves. Additionally, not only is Black History month celebrated in America, but also in the countries of Canada and Ireland! And IF YOU DON'T KNOW NOW YOU KNOW! Courtesy of the #SCINERDS!!
