

New Manchester High Senior Timeline

August:

- Think Future!
- Think about and discuss any college or work setting visits as well as military staff discussions that may be valuable for your career decisions after high school graduation.

September:

- Review your grade point average. First semester admissions documents use the grade point average through the junior year.
- Motivate Yourself! Continue to be sure that you are enrolled in challenging courses. Keep up and do well in these courses.
- Check the HOPE GPA on GAfutures on your My GAfutures account. Remember all academic courses count both required and elective courses including an academic work-based learning course(s). Also remember no middle school academic courses count.
- Meet with your professional school counselor about Dual Enrollment.
- Narrow the List! Review a list of target post-secondary options and discuss the finalized list of choices based on research completed during junior year.
- Obtain testing schedule for SAT and/or ACT and consider your time line is for test preparation s well as registration.

  2. Link of ACT: www.act.org
- Test preparation link on GAfutures: <https://www.gafutures.org/college-planning/college-decision-guide/test-prep/>
- Go to the Fair! Plan to attend PROBE Fair (Explore the Possibilities) in October. Talk with military, technical school and college representatives. Most representatives will be from in-state schools. However, there are also some out-of-state postsecondary institutions represented.

October:

- Attend the PROBE Fair held in early October at one of the district high schools. Location is announced during August.
- Take a Trip! Make plans to attend a campus or campuses that you were not able to attend last year or last summer.
- Attend along with your parent/guardian the mandated by Georgia law, BRIDGE Advisement session at the high school.
- Stay Calendar Coordinated! Be organized and put together a calendar of important "things to do".
- Check on the identification of a specialty school, work or the military if you are not interested in attending a post-secondary institution.

November:

- Be sure you are maintaining an organized calendar of important dates.
- Keep Talking! See your counselor and discuss applying to schools with early admission application deadlines. Some of these deadlines occur this month and may have already occurred for some schools earlier in the fall semester. If a letter or letters of recommendation by teachers or counselors is a requirement, make sure you are asking about these being completed well ahead of the deadline, 3 weeks ahead is recommended.
- Check on the mailing of ROTC and military academy applications, if applicable.
- Consider registering for and taking COMPASS, if applicable. This test is needed for technical schools.
- Take the SAT and/or ACT, if needed. Use test preparation materials as needed.

December:

- Think $! Communicate with the Financial Aid offices of the postsecondary school(s) that you are interested in, requesting information about financial aid and scholarships. Participate in Apply to College Week/Month at the high school. Counselors guide you through this process.
- Think about the ASVAB test. This is an optional test provided at the high school. The Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery is a very widely used multiple-aptitude test battery. Link: http://www.military.com/join-armed-forces/asvab
- Keep a file of all information and correspondence--emails and/or regular mail to postsecondary institutions.

January:

- Request your high school send your official transcripts to the colleges to which you are applying.
- Attend Financial Aid night with your parent/guardian.
- Keep an eye out for financial aid workshops and seminars, for both you and your parents. There is a lot of help out there when you're looking for information on financial aid.
- Website is: www.fafsa.ed.gov
